The image shows a restaurant interior with a prominent vaulted ceiling made of light-colored wood panels. The ceiling is supported by dark wooden beams. In the foreground, there are three large, dark wooden arches that frame the view. In the background, a bar area is visible with a curved wooden archway above the bar. The bar is stocked with various bottles of alcohol. To the right, there is a dark wooden cabinet with a countertop. The overall atmosphere is warm and rustic.

The image shows a sophisticated residential interior. In the foreground, a pool table with a black felt top and dark wood frame is visible, with a set of colorful pool balls. The room is characterized by dark, vertical wood paneling and large windows with patterned curtains. A dining table with a tufted grey sofa and a modern chandelier is in the middle ground. In the background, a bar area with a long counter and stools is visible, along with more contemporary lighting fixtures. The overall aesthetic is modern and luxurious.
